Fearless Might (Cantrip) Cast Time: Free (on your turn) Range: Self Duration: 1 round Use this when you make your first attack on your turn. You have advantage on melee weapon attack rolls during this turn, but attack rolls against you have advantage.	Double Up (Cantrip) Range: Self Perform your regular attack twice.
“Magic Missile” (1st) Range: 20 or 60 Make a ranged spell attack for 1d6+2 bludgeoning dmg. If the target is more than 20 feet away from you, take disadvantage in the roll.	Double “Magic Missile” (1st) It's two “magic missiles”. It also consumes two spell slots.
Muscle Magic (2nd) Cast Time: Bonus Action Range: Self Duration: 1 minute You produce a random magical effect. If the effect required a save, its DC would be 14. Additionally, for the duration of the spell you have advantage on Str checks and saves, your melee attacks deal +2 extra damage and you have resistance to bludg, pierc and slashing damage.

List of muscle magic effects (d8):

1. You let out a resounding flatulence. All creatures within 30 feet of you Con save or take 1d12 poison damage. You gain 1d12+5 temporary hit points.
2. Teleport to an unoccupied space up to 30 feet away from you. You can do this each turn for the duration of the spell with a bonus action.
3. Choose a space adjacent to a creature of your choice (within 30 feet). At the end of your turn a dumbbell will descend into that space like a meteor, dealing 1d6 force damage to adjacent creatures that fail their Dex save. You can do this each turn for the duration of the spell using a bonus action.
4. Your greatstaff deals force damage instead for the duration of the spell.
5. Whenever you are hit by an attack your pectoralis major flexes automatically, returning 1d6 force damage to whoever hit you.
6. Gain a muscle aura for the duration of the spell: you gain +1AC, as do allies within 10 feet of you.
7. You are vibrating at high frequencies, turning the ground within 15 feet of you into difficult terrain for enemies for the duration of the spell.
8. For the duration of the spell, your head is cleanly shaved. You use this to your advantage by focusing a powerful reflection onto an enemy creature that can see you within 30 feet, who must succeed a Con save or take 1d6 radiant damage and be blinded. You may repeat this each turn for the duration of the spell as a bonus action.
